He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
(Psalm 147:3)

†The Responsorial Psalm will be sung: Psalm 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6.

The response will be the chorus of “There Is A Balm in Gilead”.

There is a balm in Gilead, that makes the wounded whole.

There is a balm in Gilead, to heal the sin sick soul.

Praise the Lord, for he is good;
Sing praise to our God, for he is gracious;
It is fitting to praise him.
The Lord rebuilds Jerusalem;
The dispersed of Israel he gathers.

He heals the brokenhearted
And binds up their wounds.

He tells the number of the stars;
He calls each by name.

Great is our Lord and mighty in power:
To his wisdom there is no limit
The Lord sustains the lowly;
The wicked he casts to the ground.

†Gospel Reading. Luke 6:17-23

And [Jesus] came down with them and stood on a stretch of level ground. A great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases, and even those who were tormented by unclean spirits were cured. Everyone in the crowd sought to touch him because power came forth from him and healed them all.

And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said:

Blessed are you who are poor,
For the kingdom of God is yours.

Blessed are you who are now hungry,
For you will be satisfied.

Blessed are you who are now weeping,
For you will laugh.

Blessed are you when people hate you,
And when they exclude and insult you,

And denounce your name as evil
On account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treat the prophets in the same way.

[The Gospel of the Lord. All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.]

"...We are called to plant the Word in the minds and hearts and souls of our children, husbands, lovers, fathers, brothers, uncles, nephews, and friends. We don't have to worry about deception and hypocrisy...They know when our witness is the fruit of our effort and struggle and sincerity. God has called us to speak the word that is Christ, that is truth, that is salvation. And if we speak that word in love and faith, with patience and prayer and perseverance, it will take root. It does have power to save us. Call one another! Testify! Teach! Act on the Word! Witness!" (Servant of God Sister Thea Bowman, FSPA, from a Women's Day speech).

RETREAT REFLECTION QUESTIONS FROM FATHER BOXIE

Talk 1: "Broken and Bound"

- Group reflection: Without revealing too many details, recall an experience of adversity or trial or wound. How did you cope with it? What did you learn from that experience? Where did you find God in the midst of it all?

- Private reflection: What are the areas of brokenness that I need to turn over to God? Is there anything that prevents me from seeking the healing that God desires to give to me? Why or why not?

Talk 2: "Finding Joy and Blessing Amidst the Brokenness"

- Group reflection: Where do you find your joy and fulfillment in life? Has this changed during the pandemic? Why or why not? How is God calling you to draw closer to him in this moment?

- Private reflection: What kind of resolution is the Holy Spirit asking me to make after today?
